PROJECTS

➤ <https://www.northgategiftcard.com/>

Description: As a React.js Developer, I converted Adobe XD designs into responsive HTML using Bootstrap and built functional React components. I integrated APIs provided by the backend team using React hooks like useState and useEffect to manage dynamic data. I ensured a responsive, pixel-perfect UI and implemented routing with react-router-dom. I collaborated with the backend team for smooth API integration and used Git for version control. The result was a fully functional and responsive frontend aligned with the project requirements.
