PROJECTS

XRM It's a project headquartered in the US where users can hire individuals for both white-collar and blue-collar jobs. We oversee time tracking and expense management throughout the project's duration. The platform was developed using .NET, C, HTML, and MS SQL Server. During my tenure, I focused on maintenance, enhancing, and updating the system to meet clients' evolving needs (XRM)

Revamp It's a technological advancement in XRM, leveraging Angular and .NET Core. I contributed as a Frontend Angular Developer, crafting modules, creating widgets, and refining styling elements to enhance the user experience (XRM Revamp)
